The replica of the Liberty Bell for Arkansas has been placed in a beautiful pavilion on the northern grounds of the Arkansas State Capitol Building, 1401 W. Capital Avenue, Little Rock. One view through the pavilion faces a reflection pool, and the other faces the Capitol Building along with a memorial to the Little Rock Nine. It is number 27. A time capsule is part of the memorial to be opened on July 4, 2075. Arkansas shows great respect for their bell.
